

3 Types of Spectra

Spectra - using a spectroscope, light from a star can be split into a rainbow of colours.

- each element has its own spectrum so can look at stars spectrum to see if the element's lines are there → composition

Bright line spectra

- black background, bright lines

Continuous spectra - rainbow

Dark line spectra

- continuous background with dark lines where the bright ones would be